Are you ready to get inspired?

We want to boost research cooperation and quality, we want to build and strengthen interdisciplinary and international networks and we want to consolidate Svalbard as an attractive platform for Arctic research. To achieve all of this we need you to take an active role through presentations, poster sessions and group discussions.

Please follow this link to register your participation for Svalbard Science Conference: <https://forskningsradet.pameldingssystem.no/svalbard-science-conference-2019>

We look forward to see you in Oslo in November!
